Dear Potential Investor,

Keep Your Hands Off Me, Inc. (KYHOM) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit based in Wilmington, North Carolina, committed to ending childhood sexual abuse and fostering resilience in adult survivors. Founded in 2021 by a survivor of molestation and childhood abuse, our mission is grounded in truth, healing, and community. We provide trauma-informed programs and services that educate, empower, and restore.

We believe healing is possible when we break the silence. KYHOM works to prevent childhood sexual abuse through education, while supporting adult survivors on their path toward emotional recovery. As we continue to grow, we're expanding our outreach across Brunswick County and surrounding areas — bringing prevention education and healing-centered support to more families in need.

Our ongoing services include the Molestation Survivor Boot Camp, Teen 2 Success Workshop, TeenTalk for youth support and connection, Incredible Years Parenting Classes, and Case Management with referrals to trauma-informed resources. We also host Monthly Community Empowerment Sessions, our Annual Molestation Survivor Walk, and Graduation Banquets and healing-centered events that celebrate progress and promote community resilience. These programs provide emotional tools, peer support, and a sense of belonging — all of which help reduce depression, anxiety, and isolation, while building confidence and wellness in survivors and their families.

As a Partner in Prevention, KYHOM has completed training through Darkness to Light ® and partnered with The Carousel Center to bring expert-informed, trauma-responsive education into the communities we serve. These collaborations provide powerful, research-based tools to help adults recognize, respond to, and prevent child sexual abuse.

As a survivor myself, I know how long the healing journey can be. It took years of unlearning shame and rebuilding trust in myself. Today, I use my story to help others reclaim their own, one person at a time. We invite you to support our mission by becoming a donor, sponsor, or community partner. Your support helps us:

- Sponsor a teen or family in one of our healing programs
- Provide meals, supplies, or space for youth workshops
- Fund community events like our Survivor Walk or graduation banquet
- Expand trauma-informed outreach across southeastern North Carolina

Your contribution allows us to continue this vital work and helps ensure that survivors no longer have to suffer in silence.

With gratitude,

Tracy D. Harrison
